

No.057/ 2562

Notice of Surindra Rajabhat University
Subject; Will of Honesty in Administrative Work of Surindra Rajabhat University,
Annual Budget 2019

.....

In order to build up a good creditability for the society, the board of administrators will conduct the duties honestly, justified, transparent, auditable, and ready for the responsibility. We are ready to follow the rules, regulations, and laws. We will strictly perform and oppose to every form of corruption. For these reasons the university wants to set up the policies for the administrative work.

1. The board of administrators will honestly perform the functions. We will have morals, transparency, equality, responsible for work, and the be an example of the standard
2. The board of administrators will spend the budget in a reasonable purpose. We will use the properties with worthwhile purpose. All the expense will follow the accountability and transparency.
3. The board of administrators will not request for bribery and control everything that may cause the corruption in Surindra Rajabhat University.
4. The board of administrators will control, direct, and take care of every personnel in Surindra Rajabhat University. We will serve everyone without any prejudice and will give the best service.
5. The board of administrators will provide information to all personnel. We will inform them and lead them to access every kind of information and see the result of performance in the university.
6. The board of administrators give a transparency in personnel administration. We will perform the work with a moral system.
7. The board of administrators will take every kind of responsibility if there is something wrong ad may cause serious damage to the university and the society.

I therefore declare this statement and command all administrators and public servants to strictly follow with conscious mind and awareness of being a public servant to deserve to be the institutional culture.

Announced on 30th January 2019

Kanok T.

(Assistant Professor Kanok Tosuratana)
Acting President of Surindra Rajabhat University